In accordance with our telephone call of 2:30 p.m. (PST), December 10, 2003, enclosed are the following as requested:

1. A copy of our amendment (18 pages) sent by facsimile on November 17, 2003, at 15:58 (3:58 18 pages and 16:07 and 6 pages at 16:12 and 4 pages at 16:17 to 703/872-9306.
2. Auto reply facsimile transmission receipt on November 17, 2003
18 pages 6:54:40 p.m.
6 pages 7:16:55 p.m., and
4 pages 7:14:34 p.m.
3. We also forwarded the original exhibits and the facsimile of Mr. Finn's declaration in a binder to Mr. Kreps, our Washington associate. A copy of the amendment was, I recall, in a pocket or rear cover of the binder. Mr. Kreps reported that he hand delivered the binder to your office the day he received it, November 18, 2003.

4. When the original signature of Mr. Finn arrived, we forwarded the original declaration. Enclosed is the postal card returned December 1, 2003, acknowledging receipt of the declaration and amendment November 24, 2003.

Enclosed is a copy of the amendment as faxed November 17, 2003. Faxing of amendments is new to this office and can be marvelous if it always works.

Respectfully submitted,

John E. Wagner, Reg. No. 11,496

should make it clear that Paquette's structure cannot function as described. The described "moment arm" is either blocked or minimized in Paquette because any tendency of weight 30 to react as described is effectively blocked by legs 32, 34.

The compensating force of applicant's weight 26 can have no counterpart in Paquette because legs 32, 34 prevent the inertial reaction of his weight 30, as described. Thus, Paquette actually teaches away from applicant's invention, as claimed.

Claim 14 has been amended to add the word --single-- before "support" to point up the fact that applicant teaches and claims "a single support" for his "elongated weight member". This amendment obviously requires no additional search because similar language has been pending in claim 20. This claim is believed clearly allowable over Paquette.

Claims 15, 17, and 18 remain as before other than the above-described change in parent claim 14 and are believed allowable along with claim 14.

Applicant has proposed a change in claim 20 in which a "whereby" provision is added to specifically describe the manner in which applicant's elongated weight member acts to compensate for an off-center hit of a ball. This change is essentially in the language of the description of Fig. 4 of page 8 of applicant's specification, recites no additional structure and is not believed to require any additional search. Claim 20 is believed clearly allowable over Paquette for reasons discussed above.

Claims 21, 22, 24, 26, and 27 are dependent upon claim 20 and remain the same

DECLARATION OF CHARLES A. FINN

I, CHARLES A. (MICKEY) FINN, hereby declare and state:

1. I am the inventor of the T-Bar Putter™, which is the subject of U.S. patent application Serial No. 09/934,987 filed August 22, 2001, based upon Provisional Patent Application Serial No. 60/227,741 filed August 24, 2000.
2. Attached hereto is a binder with a cover "The T-Bar Putter™ by Mickey Finn" in which I have gathered together and submitted to my attorney of record October 30, 2003, the following documents:
 - a) My own undated statement to the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.
 - b) Cover page and testimonial from the sales manual of Progressive Innovations, Inc., which is my retail arm with testimonials from five professional golfers. The testimonials to my information and belief are true and correct.
 - c) A proposed agreement with GLOBAL GOLF dated October 20, 2000, stating provisions which I accepted.
 - d) A copy of the T-Bar Putter™ triple fold brochure.

6. This document also describes my previous inventions which have been recognized and have constituted major contributions to our U.S. national defense and economy.
7. My previous inventions also support the fact that I have since turned my attention to inventing in the sporting goods field, particularly golf. I am not a golfer but am experienced and creative in producing mechanical devices of originality and superiority in meeting the needs of the users. Also, I have no connections with any existing major golf company nor have I paid for any endorsements, statements, or the like, contained in the document or from any golf professional.

I hereby declare that all statements made herein are true and that all statements made herein on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or document or any registration resulting therefrom.
